Hudson Recreations tennis lessons are geared for children of all abilities. Our staff will work with participants to ensure they learn the basic skills of tennis through various games and drills. Participants in this program will play many tennis related games and participate in activities, building on the basics of tennis while promoting fun on the court. Participants will be introduced to various skills and drills enabling them to further develop their individual tennis abilities. During these group lessons, our tennis staff will pair individual players appropriately into small groups to ensure all participants have the best opportunity to succeed. The recreation staff retains the right to move children from group to group (within the same session), as needed based on the skill level of those in attendance. Hudson Recreation guarantees 4 out of 5 classes.

Tournament Tennis Training – Program by invite only, Online registration not available

Lesson runs for 50 minutes, Monday-Friday for 1 week; Cost: $90 for Hudson Residents, $110 for non-Hudson Residents

Offered weeks of July 22, 29 and Aug 5 at 8:00am

Class size is limited to 4* participants and will be led by our Head Tennis Instructor. This program is geared for tennis players who are looking to improve their skills, learn more about game strategy and want to either begin or continue to play tennis competitively. These group lessons are smaller in size, ensuring that our Instructor has the ability to focus on each participant's individual strengths and weaknesses. This program is not intended for beginner level players. Previous playing experience and the ability to comfortably play in a match is required. Before registering for this class, participants must obtain our Head Tennis instructor's recommendation.
